

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary is a disheartening example of how far we've sunk in this country.

There's no longer any inhibition on the abuse of community airwaves.

I send this to you, though I'm certain the FCC is in the grip of right wing ideologues who believe that a free market means that anyone can do anything as long as they have the money.

This is a tremendous step backward to the nineteenth century and we will rue the day we let this kind of asocial behavior seize control of the public airwaves.
